Re: Mena v. City of New York, et al., No. 1:15-cv-03707-ALC-SLC

Dear Judge Cave,

Selendy & Gay PLLC represents Plaintiff Geraldo Mena pro bono in this matter. Regrettably, we write to notify the Court that Mr. Mena's parole hold has not been resolved due to the New York State Attorney General's ("NYAG") repeated requests for an adjournment of his scheduled writ hearing—to date, the NYAG has requested and has been granted four adjournments. Consequently, Mr. Mena remains in D.O.C. custody and will likely be unavailable to attend the mediation scheduled for Wednesday, February 24, 2021 (the "Mediation").

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Mediation be adjourned for a date in late March. Defendants consent to this request. Additionally, in light of the requested Mediation adjournment, Plaintiff and Defendants jointly request a corresponding adjournment of the briefing schedule for our respective mediation statements, which are due Thursday, February 18, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Lauren J. Zimmerman
